

Intervention of the NGO New Humanity, to the General Conference of UNESCO - November 2021

We, the youth of the NGO New Humanity, believe that a united world is possible. How can we achieve this?

We would be taking a step forward if we all strive to love each other's country as our own; if we all commit to an integral ecology by taking respectful and caring actions towards our fellow human beings and towards the nature on which our lives depend. This concerns us all
