

DELEGATION OF FINLAND
41st Session of the General Conference of UNESCO dropping out or falling behind in learning. Girls are at particular risk. The only acceptable goal in the current situation is that there must be no lost generation.

As technology becomes ever more intertwined with all aspects of our lives, we need to pay close attention to its racial, gender and social bias