Privacy Notice

List of National Focal Points to the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict and its two Protocols (1954 and 1999)

Introduction

UNESCO is committed to protecting personal data in line with its Principles on Personal Data Protection and Privacy (<https://www.unesco.org/en/privacy-policy>).

This Privacy Notice explains how UNESCO uses the personal data related to the National Focal Points for the implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention and its two Protocols.

What information do we collect and how?

UNESCO collects personal data (name, professional role, and contact details) of the National Focal Points for the Implementation of the 1954 Hague Convention and its two Protocols, and other relevant information depending on the context.

We collect personal data for this list from the following sources:

- Official communications addressed from States Parties to the Secretariat
- National periodic reports submitted by States Parties to the Secretariat for each reporting cycle.
- Official contact details of States Parties Permanent Delegations to UNESCO
- Directly from individuals with their consent

Why is the personal data being collected?

This list of National Focal Points is published on UNESCO's website in order to encourage and facilitate bilateral and multilateral cooperation.

How will we use your personal data?

The data are publicly disclosed on UNESCO's website and are therefore freely accessible to all third parties. UNESCO may also share this list with other States Parties to the 1954 Hague Convention.

How long do we keep your personal data?

The list will be updated regularly, upon submission or update of contact details, and at least every four years following the submission of national periodic reports. Personal data may be deleted upon written request by either the concerned State Party or the individual concerned.

Links to other websites

Our website contains links to other websites. Our Privacy Notice applies only to our website. For example, we provide links to a number of social media platforms such as Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram, Pinterest and YouTube. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or content on third-party websites and encourage you to read the privacy notices of other websites you visit.

How to contact us?

You may request access to your personal data in order to verify its accuracy and request correction or deletion. To do so, and for any other questions regarding the processing of your personal data, please contact 99sp@unesco.org.

For any other questions regarding the processing of your personal data, contact the UNESCO DPO at privacy@unesco.org.
